ANTI-RAGGING MECHANISM

The University Grants Commission has recommended strong action against ragging in the institutions of higher learning. In Pursuance of the Judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 08.05.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, the University Grants Commission has framed "UGC Regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, 2009" and notified on 4th July 2009 in the Gazette of India. These regulations are mandatory for all universities/Institutions. The UGC has made it mandatory for all students/Parents to submit anti-ragging-related affidavits to the institutions at the time of admission.

'Nursing is a noble profession. Its members are revered for their commitment to health providers, integrity, and consideration for the rights and well-being of others. Every nursing student shall, therefore, learn to be self-disciplined and observe rules and regulations as a habit rather than because of fear of consequences. They shall at all times conduct themselves with the proper dignity and decorum expected of a future Nursing professional.
